

Arabic Writing Workshop (Klami-Pen) (25, 26 & 27 April)

Subject: AJA students awarded at Qatar National Library workshop

Qatar National Library held an Arabic Workshop for Grade 5 and 6 students on 25, 26 and 27 April 2019. Three students enrolled from Al Jazeera Academy for this workshop.

This workshop, called “Klami,” lasted for three days. The first two days, several authors, writers, and content specialists provided writing tips to the students. On the final day, the students wrote their own creative story and submitted it for consideration.

During an award’s ceremony on 4 May, the three students from Al Jazeera Academy were awarded a certificate, gift voucher worth QAR 100, and QNL books. We congratulate the following students on their accomplishments and extend gratitude to their parents who supported and accompanied the students.
